15 September 2022

KONTAKTE '22 Festival begins tomorrow, 16 September, with the world premiere of a concert installation by Clemens Gadenstätter, performed by ensemble mosaik and Anna Hauf

More new electroacoustic musical works and sound installations from 22 to 25 September

Akademie der Künste, Hanseatenweg

The KONTAKTE '22 Festival begins on Friday, 16 September, with the world premiere of the full-length concert installation ES und AnderES by Clemens Gadenstätter, performed by ensemble mosaik and Anna Hauf. Starting Thursday, 22 September, the rest of the programme offers a multifaceted spectrum of current artistic trends and developments in the fields of electroacoustic music and sound art. For five days, the Akademie building on Hanseatenweg will serve as the venue for a series of concerts, performances, sound installations and panel discussions, and a meeting place for artists, music lovers and experts.

The full festival programme is available online at: www.adk.de/kontakte22
